

Wagoner Art Alliance

May 1, 2017

Minutes

The meeting was called to order by the President, Annita Wilson at 6:05pm with 7 members present.

Minutes of the previous meeting, having been read by all on line, were approved as read.

The Treasurer, Polly Moore, reported we currently had 37 members and a balance in the treasury of $2278.98. She also reported that a new computer was purchased because the one we had crashed. Also, $56 was dedicated to chalk art at the Wagoner Art Fair and $125 was the cost paid to Tech Soup for QuickBooks.

The gallery is to be changed on May 4 so we will have new art during the art fair.

It was decided that all classes would be on Saturdays. The wreath class will be this summer. Kate Schroder wants another PMC class and she will choose either June 24, 25 or July 8, 9.

The spring salad luncheon and art sale will be May 20 from 11:00am to 2:00pm and members will be asked to bring salads or deserts and any art supplies they no longer need or want for a sale.

The pottery equipment donated to the Alliance will be on loan to and set up at Deb Drager's Studio and our members will be allowed to use it there.

The tiles donated by Jim Roiax and paint supplied by the Alliance will be used by Susanne Salichs to teach a class at Autumnwood for underprivileged children.

Barbara Moore moved that we adjourn, Polly Moore seconded, meeting adjourned.
