

Wagoner Arts Alliance

January 8, 2018

Minutes

President, Annita Wilson, opened meeting at 6:07pm with 11 members present.

Cyndie Romero made the motion that the December 2017 minutes, having been read on line, be approved as read. Greg McGee seconded the motion. Motion approved.

Polly Moore, Treasurer, reported a bank balance of $2434.84. She also reported income and expenses for the month. Nancy Hurley moved to accept and Cyndie Romero seconded. The motion passed.

Cyndie Romero, gallery manager, reported that the gallery was to be changed out on February 1 and asked that members bring in 2 or 3 paintings or photos to hang until the last of May.

Cyndie Romero, workshop chairman, reported the following classes:

Palette Knife – January 13 – 12:00 to 3:00 - $25 members, $30 non-members

Paper Making – January 27 – 1:00 to 4:00 $30 members, $35 non-members

Computer Classes - January 19 & 26 – Microsoft Publisher - 12:00 to 3:00

February 2 & 9 – Excel $15 members per day $20 non-mem

Scratchboard Group – January 20 – 10:00 to 2:00

Cork N' Canvas – January 9 - 5:30 to 7:30

Hand Casting – February 3 – 10:00 to 2:00

China Painting – February 10, 17, 24 $40 members, $45 non-members

Kids Classes – March

Mary Rowe reported that 'Pastel on Main' will be April 21. She is asked that we have a competition for a design for a T-shirt. Designs to be submitted by Feb 16 and the membership vote on the best design at the March meeting. The winning design to receive $100.

Mary Rowe also passed a letter to all attending that she composed to send out to businesses asking for monetary support. All in attendance approved of the letter. She asked that all members give her ideas for prize baskets for 'Pastel on Mail' for children and adults.

Polly reported on a schedule for summer camp for kids. She also reported speaking to Linda Callaway (a retired elementary art teacher) who has several years of experience of organizing and teaching in summer camps about coming back to help organizing and teaching in our camp. Linda agreed she would if we would purchase her air fare. Greg McGee made a motion to pay Linda's air fare and Nancy seconded the motion. Motion passed.

Barbara Moore made a motion that we donate $100 to the Wagoner Switch District, Polly Moore seconded. Motion passed.

Barbara Moore, Secretary