

Wagoner Arts Alliance

April 3, 2017

Minutes

The meeting was called to order by Polly Moore at 6:05 pm with 7 members present.

Minutes of the previous meeting, having been read on-line, were approved as read.

The Treasurer, Polly Moore, reported a balance of $2397.79 and a membership count of 27. Barbara Moore made a motion to approve the report. Nancy Hurley seconded the motion. Motion was passed.

Polly Moore reported that the Wagoner Rocks program was very successful. Another rock painting class will be held April 15, $10 members, $15 non-members.

The wreath class was cancelled due to a lack of interest.

The pastel class was a great success with 11 attending.

A precious metal class is being held this Saturday April 8 with Kate Schroder as the instructor.

The next scratchboard group will meet May 13. It was decided that there would be a $10 charge to all attending to cover costs of utilities.

The gallery is to be changed the first of May. All members are encouraged to get their creative juices flowing for some new art.

Mary Rowe reported on the progress made on the Wagoner Art Fair.

It was suggested that a spring luncheon be held in May but no action was taken.

Nancy Hurley moved that we adjourn. Carolyn Cooper seconded the motion. The meeting was adjourned.
