

Wagoner Arts Alliance

October 4, 2018

Meeting

President, Annita Wilson, opened the meeting with 8 members present.

Cyndie Romero moved that the online minutes be approved. The motion was seconded by Sally French.

Treasurer, Polly Moore, reported a bank balance of $8,898.67, income for July was $1065.49. Gallery manager, Cyndie Romero, reported that she would like to have new art for the gallery Thursday, October 5. Nancy Hurley said she would sit the gallery on Saturdays.

Polly reported that the Cork & Canvas project, so far had brought in an excess of $3000 this year and that there was little interest shown in renewing scratchboard group. A complete list of classes (to the end of the year) is on our website under 'events'.

Cyndie reported the bulldog banners were partially finished. She has planned a pizza party for October 11 for members to come and finish them.

Cyndie suggested having a member show at Sequoyah Lodge during the Winter Bluegrass Festival in January and that we need someone to step up and manage it.

Polly said she would put a note in the newsletter asking that any member that would like to be on our board of directors (officers) let any member of the present board what office they would like to hold.

Sally French stated that she was taking a 13 year old girl to Tulsa to Ziegler's for a sculpture class and would be glad to take any other children that would like to go.

Polly suggested having a lunch meeting at noon to see if more members would attend. The November 1 meeting will be at the Alliance from 12:00 to 1:00. Those who don't work, bring a dish. Those who work just bring yourself.

Cyndie moved that we adjourn, Mary Rowe seconded, meeting adjourned.
